THE COLLECT GRADUATE.

By George Petrh

At this time of the year the collect

At this type of the year the councy graduate comes most prominently to our attention. This is be cause he is at prefinition, like a rocket which has just adapted its dirionst till add in a blazz of globy, and is preparing to descend musicionisticuously later an appropriate production of the property o out into the world and has laken a firm grasp of it a new ear with begin and history will henceforth become as interesting as a magozine hervel. This is a the college graduals a fault, but he suffers from it, siever theless. When he graduals in its above the less when the graduals in its above the less when the graduals in the authority that is a less than the property that is a less than the second of th the biggest thing in the college world, and cannot be blamed for it ing awake nights and wonder in whether to take things of President Wilson at once or to withheld his advice from the nation for a few The college graduate is conrientions, and the thought of ter eculing his pyramid of knowledge, while the nation plods blindly into trouble for want of it and stocks come down on the run, is unberruble to him,

We should gaze upon the college graduate now and enjoy him, for a little later we will not be able to find ittle later we will not be able to find litm. He will have set little the evening sun and in order to milier, hit treasure vanits of pricelets knowledge we will have to ask the nilice boy of some large materialism to plead with the shipping tierk to allow acid graduate to energy from the wardhouse and fork over said lewels of thought

When the college traduate gets through with his gration he takes his diploma and stops by the store and down 7,800 miles into everyda, mants. Some of them never recover.

Why is the soda cracker today such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

Uneeda Biscuit soda crackers better than any ever made before -made in the greatest bakeries in the world-baked to perfection -packed to perfection-kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package. Five cents.
